LEGUE OF THE EARTHQUAKE

ON THE QUAY AT VALPARAISO

People in Panic at Night, Parents in Wild Search for Lost Children—Populace Camps in Open, Suffering Intensely From the Cold Weather

anouncement. The streets were crowded. From here the streets slope up sharply on all sides and on three sides and at their crests lie the residential sections. Many beautiful villas crown the heights of the hill surrounding the city, part of these being in the Bella Vista section, where the wealthy and fashionable Valparaiso live.

BIG BUILDINGS TOPPLE OVER. Without any warning the earth began to move sharply. Citizens are accustomed to earthquakes, and even the children play tag about in the streets did not cry out when they felt the tremor. The houses which were built on the hillsides began to slide down the hillsides. Many of the houses were built on the hillsides. Many of the houses were built on the hillsides.

PEOPLE FLEE IN PANIC. The when the earth began to move, the people fled in panic. Many of the houses were built on the hillsides. Many of the houses were built on the hillsides.

KILLED BY FALLING BRICKS. On the tops of many of the houses in the residential sections were people who were killed by falling bricks. Many of the houses were built on the hillsides.

$10,000 COCHATO, WHO RACES AT READVILLE TRACK TO-MORROW

BY ITS CORPS OF EXPERTS GRAND CIRCUIT MEET AT READVILLE TO-DAY

By Edward E. Cogswell.

Probably at 2:30 this afternoon Start Judge Bob Newton will ring his bell for the horses in the class "Blue Hill" stake for trotters eligible to the grand circuit to receive their positions and a few moments later the grand circuit meeting will be in active operation.

For more than five months the directors of the New England Trotting Association have been busy in the preparation of the grand circuit meeting, and it is to be expected from the officials that the meeting will be one of the most successful in the history of the grand circuit.

Director George A. Hayes has paid much attention to the details of the meeting, and he has been particularly successful in the selection of the horses. The grand circuit meeting is a series of races for two-year-olds, and the horses are selected from all over the country.
